1. General Regulations

The General Diplomas of the Faculty of Dentistry, Royal College of Surgeons in Ireland, in the disciplines outlined in this document may be granted to those who possess a dental qualification registrable in the Register of Dentists for Ireland and to graduates or diplomates in Dentistry of those Universities and other licensing bodies recognised for the purpose and who comply with the Regulations. The examination can be taken at any time after graduation. Successful completion of the Diploma of Primary Care Dentistry allows entry directly to Part 2 of the Membership of the Faculty of Dentistry examination

The dates of the examination and the fees payable for admission to the examination are set out in the examination calendars, which are published annually by the College and are available on the Faculty of Dentistry website <http://facultyofdentistry.ie>. The examination is conducted in the English language. Candidates should note that the examination may be delivered in a variety of formats.

Applications must be made online through <https://postgradexams.rcsi.ie/>

Prior to formally applying, please ensure that you carefully read the following information that can be found on our Faculty website

- Exam regulations
- Exam Rules of Conduct

The online application must be received by the SARA Department (Student Academic and Regulatory Affairs) on or before the closing date of the examination. Once applications have reached the maximum quota, which may be in advance of the advertised closing date, no further applications will be accepted.

Once your online application has been processed you will receive official confirmation, along with your examination number.

The SARA Department will be in contact with you prior to the examination regarding further details of venues, timetables, etc.

The required certificates and the full amount of the fee payable for the examination must accompany applications for admission to an examination.

Candidates should make themselves familiar with the Examination Policies available on our website

Candidates withdrawing from an examination must adhere to the examination policies regarding withdrawal.

The College or Board of the Faculty reserves absolute discretion to refuse to admit to the examination, proceed with the examination of, any candidate who (a) infringes any of the Regulations or (b) who is considered by the Examiners to be acting in a manner prejudicial to the proper management and conduct of the examination or (c) whose conduct has rendered them in the College's or Board's opinion, unsuitable for conferral with the Diploma of Primary Care Dentistry of the Royal College of Surgeons in Ireland.

Candidates who wish to appeal should review the appeals policy

APPENDIX I

Candidate Code of Conduct

Candidate acknowledgement of the code of conduct for examination

By enrolling in an examination held by the Faculty of Dentistry, Royal College of Surgeons in Ireland, I, a candidate for examination, confirm that I have read, understood and accepted the following code of conduct for the examination.

The Code of Conduct in respect of disseminating examination information:

1. I confirm that I will not disseminate in any way (written, oral or electronic) information regarding the content of this examination. I will maintain the confidentiality of the examination materials. I will not reproduce or attempt to reproduce examination materials through recording, memorization, or by any other means. I will not provide information relating to examination content to anyone, including those who may be taking or preparing others to take the examination. This includes postings regarding examination content and/or answers on the Internet.
2. Should RCSI obtain information that I had prior access to or was involved in, reproducing or disseminating RCSI examination question materials, I understand that I may be prohibited from ever taking or retaking any RCSI certification examinations.
3. I understand that prior knowledge of or disseminating information on the content of the Written Examination (both on line or paper based), could constitute a breach of my responsibility as an RCSI examination candidate.
4. I understand and accept that any violation of the above notices may mandate an investigation that may subject me to disciplinary and/or legal action taken by RCSI. The RCSI may, at its discretion, refuse to examine me or, having examined me, may refuse to issue a certificate based upon its above-described investigation. Should I already have become a Fellow, Member or Diplomate of the Faculty of Dentistry, RCSI, such violation may result in the revocation of my certificate. It would also be customary for RCSI to inform such violation to the relevant professional governing body with whom I am registered in the practice of dentistry.

Penalties for Examination Offences

Examination offences are taken extremely seriously. Anyone either suspected of or caught committing an examination offence or for breaching the code of conduct in relation to the dissemination of examination information will be reported immediately to the Faculty and College Authorities. Further action may be taken.
